

JOHNSON REPORTS TWELVE MILLIONS IN STATE COFFERS

Nearly Four Million Paid in by Railroads During September

MADISON, Wis.—The state had $12,421,210 on hand in its various funds, October 1. Henry Johnson, state treasurer, reported Wednesday. Of this amount $9,360,543, was in the general fund for payment of highway expenses and general administrative costs.

During the past month $3,923,827 was added to the general fund from railway taxes and automobile license fee payments, while disbursements totaled $2,970,871, most of which were to meet expenditures for highway construction and maintenance.

There is at present $926,225 in the service recognition fund out of which costs involved in building the Wisconsin general hospital at the university are to be met. Receipts in this fund amounted to but $516 for the month, while disbursements totaled $22,038.

The educational bonus fund now amounts to $986,620. Disbursements from the fund during the past month were $28,426 and receipts $521. The small receipts in both the educational bonus fund and the service recognition fund from which cash bonuses were paid to soldiers, indicate that the tax commission investigators reported a negligible amount of unpaid back taxes during the month.

Receipts for the state insurance fund, carrying life insurance policies on state employees, amounted to $12,450 for the month, with expenditures of $369. The fund has a balance of $211,145.

The teachers' retirement fund showed receipts of $183,905, disbursements of $118,498 and a balance of $215,605, and the university fund income receipts for the month were $166,336, its disbursements $255,617 and its balance $248,216.

Total receipts in all funds for the month were $4,331,416 and total disbursements $3,377,383.

MINNESOTA COUPLE IS MARRIED HERE BY JUDGE C. W. HUNT

Archie E. Brown of St. Paul and Miss Verena L. Doscher of Madison Lake, Minn., were married Tuesday by Judge C. W. Hunt in his office. After the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Chicago and other eastern cities.

NO INDEPENDENTS FILE FOR OFFICE WITH 3 DAYS TO GO

MADISON, Wis.—With three days remaining for independent candidates who wish to enter the general election to file nomination papers, the secretary of state reports that no petitions have been received.

It is thought that the republican candidates for state office will go into the election unopposed by independent candidates from within their party. Democrats go on the ballot as independents unless the supreme court on October 10 gives them a place under a party column.

STUDENTS AT U. W. TO EXPRESS VIEWS ON DRY QUESTION

Questionnaire on Prohibition
Now Being Circulated at the University

MADISON, Wis.—Men and women students at the University of Wisconsin are going to decide the prohibition question. Announcement was made today by R. L. Reynolds, student editor of the Commerce Magazine, that a questionnaire was now being circulated among the student body to obtain the views of both men and women.

"Are you an absolute dry? Are you for light wines and beer? Are you an absolute wet? Would you, wet, dry, or indifferent, give information against a moonshiner. (For women) In general, do you approve of a partner who sometimes has a breath? (For men) Do you approve of an occasional stag party with moonshine trimmings? Do you think the university 'wetter' than your home town? Do you think the enforcement of prohibition should be more drastic?"

These are all questions included in the questionnaire the results of which the editors of the magazine state "will be of great interest to the people of Wisconsin and the nation."

It is not expected that the results will be made public for at least a month.

False Claims.

WE hope there is no Mother who thinks she can treat her sick baby without calling in a Physician, or with remedies that she uses for herself.

Most Mothers know that Baby requires remedies especially prepared for babies, yet there are some who think that what is good enough for them is good enough for Baby, and it is to these Mothers we appeal to give nothing to their babies that is not specially prepared for babies or recommended by their Physician.

Why do we so often call your attention to imitations of Fletcher's Castoria? Because it is a baby's medicine and imitations are always dangerous, particularly imitations of a remedy for infants.

Your druggist may not keep an imitation but they are to be found on drug-store shelves. Reliable druggists think only of the welfare of their customers. The other kind only of the greater profit to be made on imitations.

Your own judgment tells you that Fletcher's Castoria having for over thirty years at great expense held up its reputation, must jealously guard it. Then, it follows that this company must use the very best of material. Must employ experts in the selection of the herbs. Must retain skilled chemists in its manufacture.

Your same good judgment must tell you that these irresponsible imitators are trading on your credulity and the reputation built up by Mr. Fletcher, during all these years, for his Castoria.

The Quick Style

The quickest-cooking oats in the world

Now your grocer has Instant Quaker Oats, as well as the regular Quaker.

The Instant cooks in a hurry. It cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes.

It is the quickest-cooking oats in the world.

Thin flakes, partly cooked

In flavor and quality the two styles are identical. Both are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats.

We get but ten pounds of Quaker Oats from a bushel. And that super-flavor has made this brand the leading oat dish the world over.

But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked.

So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Now Quaker Oats offers you two great advantages. It offers you flavor which no other oats can match. And it offers, if you wish, the only oats that cook in from 3 to 5 minutes.

For one or both of these reasons you want Quaker Oats. Be sure that you get it, and get the style you want.

ADVISORY BOARD ON VOCATIONAL TEACHER STANDARDS PLANNED

Action to Improve Quality of Instruction in Industrial Schools is Proposed

MADISON, Wis.—Creation of an advisory committee on vocational school teacher standards empowered to establish standards of qualification for instructors, is proposed by Dr. F. A. Fitzpatrick and Jennie McMullin Turner, of the state board of education, in a bulletin issued Wednesday.

They suggested that the board, which would co-operate with the state board of vocational education, should be composed of representatives of continuation school teachers, directors and local board members of all vocational schools of the state.

Some action is necessary to improve the standard of teachers of certain subjects in Wisconsin's vocational schools, the bulletin says. It adds that "unless there is considerable unanimity as to the qualifications worth paying for, and some basis for confidence that those who acquire certain qualifications will be rewarded for it, there is little encouragement to teachers to improve their preparation for their work."

Recommendation is made by the authors of the bulletin that all teachers in continuation school should have had some industrial experience, whether teaching academic subjects or vocational subjects and that every teacher have had a broad general education.

"We might say that we believe that by 1924 the equivalent of high school education, at least, should be set up as desirable for every beginning teacher of trade and industrial subjects. This minimum should be extended as conditions warrant to include work of college grade."

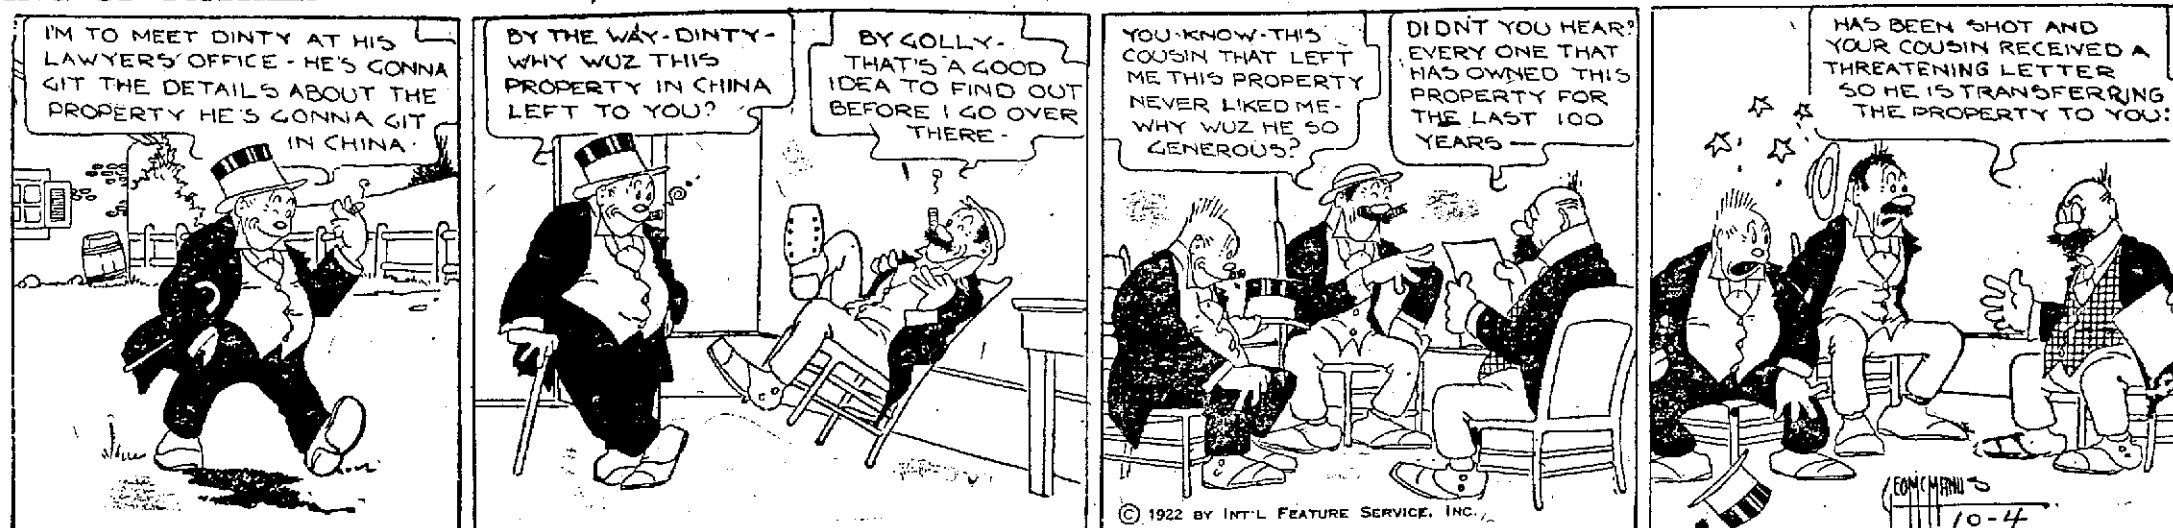

The suggestions for setting up salary schedules for Wisconsin continuation schools include a proposal for a minimum wage for beginning teachers, for extra compensation for every year of industrial or teaching experience above the required minimum, and an adequate teachers' pension for continuation school teachers.

Lack of adequate trade experience and of teacher training are the principal faults with trade teachers at the present time, the bulletin says. It recommends creation of the special advisory board as a means of remedying the present situation in the continuation schools of the state.

BRINGING UP FATHER

GATES CLOSED AT BIG TEN CAMPS AS COACHES DRIVE ELEVENS THROUGH WORKOUTS

CHICAGO, Ill.—Big Ten football coaches are driving their elevens hard this week in preparation for opening the western conference grid season next Saturday. Nine of the ten teams enter the 1922 campaign then.

So far as the style of opposing elevens is known, it is being exemplified by the "scrubs" in smashing attacks on the tentative varsity casts for the first games. Coaches are concentrating on the development of defensive play and closed gates at most camps to keep watchers from observing the week's workout on new offensives to be tried in the opening engagements.

Most of the coaches have decided upon the makeup of their elevens. Warm weather has been hard on the elevens this week and scrimmages have usually been held after sundown. In some camps under electric lights.

The champion Hawkeyes, strong contenders for another conference title, continue to show their superiority over any combination of scrubs sent against them in scrimmage in the Iowa training camp.

At Minnesota the Gopher varsity has had all it wants to do to handle opposition from the second string men and Coach Spaulding has made frequent switches in his line-up.

New intricate formations featuring two long passes are being put to a severe test at Ohio State whose battle with Ohio Wesleyan is only four days distant.

In a tough workout at Stagg field Tuesday night the University of Chicago varsity won a 20 to 0 victory over the Freshmen.

The Northwestern varsity made a good showing against the purple freshmen who used the Detroit style of play in preparation for the game Saturday with the Wisconsin school.

Coach Phelan worked his Purdue squad until long after dark, concentrating on his backfield with every conceivable play for advancing the ball.

Indiana, which has been out of the Big Ten running for several years, has been showing considerable promise as a contender this season.

Although he has a large squad at work, Coach Rockne at Notre Dame has an almost complete team of cripples on the sidelines as a result of hard scrimmages and the Kalamazoo game last Saturday.

LANSING, Iowa.—The teachers of the public and rural schools will attend the institute at Waukon Thursday and Friday of this week.

The many friends of Cletus Killgariff, who is in St. Francis hospital La Crosse, will be glad to learn there is some improvement. His father, Mr. Killgariff, spent Sunday at his bedside. Mrs. Killgariff has been with him in the hospital since he entered.

Miss Francis Brophy is ably taking care of the work as county nurse and is busy every day visiting and inspecting the school children. There is a field for a city nurse here in Lansing, and it would be a charity to spend public money for such cases.

STATE COMMITTEE OF G. O. P. MEETS TODAY AT MADISON

MADISON, Wis.—The central committee of the republican party meets here Wednesday to organize and to formulate plans for the general election campaign of party candidates nominated at the September primary.

Robert M. La Follette, Jr., chairman the committee, called together its 44 members for their first gathering. He presides at the session which will take up most of the day.

The committee will prepare to get its campaign machinery set in order as soon as organization is completed. Itineraries of speakers and provision for handling campaign funds will be made.

It is intended that both Senator La Follette and Governor Blaine, heading the republican ticket, enter their speaking campaign within the next two weeks.

The republican central committee is made up of two men and two women from each congressional district.

FIRE FIGHTERS IN MINNESOTA GAINING HEADWAY ON FLAMES

Improvement in the Situation Comes With More Favorable Weather Conditions

FOREST FIRES ARE REPORTED BREAKING OUT IN WISCONSIN

Fire Fighters Called Out to Fight Blaze Along Highway 35

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Fire-fighters gained headway on all fronts in the fire zone in northern Minnesota Tuesday night due to more favorable weather conditions and Wednesday morning are awaiting developments dependent upon wind.

No reports had been received at the state forester's office here early in the day and this was taken to indicate that the situation had improved considerably in other sections.

Fires are Wide-Spread

DULUTH, Minn. — Northern Minnesota's forest fires Wednesday morning continued a veritable sea of smoke, colored smoke, smoke-dotted with fires, some under control, some admittedly beyond control and the whole threatening further widespread destruction at the slightest provocation of the elements.

In St. Louis county alone there are 107 fires burning, according to the latest reports from Adjutant General Walter F. Rhinow, who is personally co-operating with the forestry department in the fire zone.

Vineland Calls for Help

A call for help was sent out Tuesday night from Vineland, where it was declared the fire was out of control and almost one section's home had been burned and the entire town endangered. Additional forest fire fighters were asked for immediately.

Another call for help came from Keisey, where it was feared the fire was threatening a $20,000 school building.

Women and children have been removed from all parts of the threatened area to places of safety and personal belongings are being either taken out or being made ready for instant evacuation.

Fires in Wisconsin

SUPERIOR, Wis. — Forest fires sweeping into Douglas county across the Minnesota state line in the vicinity of Kingsdale, have worked their way up the Spruce and Tamarack to the vicinity of the Chaffey settlement for the thirty-five miles south of Superior. The fires have already burned out the Ole Severson farm and the George Corrigan farm, both south of Chaffey, with heavy loss. It is also feared that the farm of Ole Mattson, directly in the path of the blaze, has been burned out. Nothing has been heard from Mattson for three days and there is apprehension as to his safety.

Farmers Save Homes

The families of Otto and Charles Anderson, whose homes are on Highway 35 near Chaffey, fought the fire continually for twenty-four hours, and finally managed to save their homes.

A small settlement at Spruce 35 on the "Soo" Superior-Twin City line, is believed doomed. It is completely surrounded by fire.

The fires worked up to the very door of the farm home of John Hattman near Foxboro but heroic efforts on the part of himself and wife, who have fought the fire since Monday, finally halted the flames.

Fearful Danger to Park

For a time it was feared the fire would work into Paterson park, the state park at Manitowish Fork, south of here, but they circled around it to the eastward and all danger to the park is believed past.

If the fires continue to work their way northward the big colony of summer cottages at Lake Amnicon is doomed.

James Naughton state conservation warden, stated that if the fire once got into the heavy timber southwest of Lake Amnicon it would be impossible to check it.

BLACK RIVER WATER SUPPLY MEETING IS CALLED THURSDAY

A meeting of the Black River water supply committee has been called for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The committee consists of the audit and purchase, grounds and buildings and administration on committees of the common council.

It was announced that the committee would draw up a recommendation on the water supply project for presentation to the council at its next regular meeting.

Monkeys

Craveth Wells, explorer, while tramping in Malay jungles, found that the natives had trained brooks, small monkeys, to run up trees and pick coconuts for them.

That is interesting because it happens for a way.

But, shucks! In our country the monkeys' descendants have been trained to do "a heap sight" more than the brooks.

You have noticed in a circus menagerie that the monkeys are just as interested in us as we are in them. This is one of the reasons.—West Salem Nonpareil.

SCHOOLBOY RADICALS OF EGYPT PROVING A MENACE TO POLITICS

Policy of Repression on Part of Government Regarded as a Necessity

CAIRO, Egypt. — The inauguration of a strict policy by the Egyptian government to deal with the fanatical enthusiasm of the school boy politicians is regarded by all the native papers as a necessity of the hour, if the Egyptian political and educational structures are to be saved from disruption.

The students in the universities and high schools of the country who came forward last year and joined in street demonstrations to help win political freedom for Egypt, have now developed a new movement which seems to be a general revolt against all existing customs that conflict with their own personal aggrandizement.

The students, conscious of their power, have turned their energies to eliminating examinations. Their political slogan a year ago was: "We do not want the English." Today they are shouting: "We want no more examinations." And they are keen enough to plan a campaign which will use politics as a lever to make easier their classroom work.

The elections for members of the new parliament are set for October. The students aim to see that only candidates who heed their demands are returned to both houses. Their election cries are now being tried out in this wise: "Vote for Mahmud Bey and no examinations."

Followers of Zaghoul Pasha are taking advantage of the students' over zealotry and are showering upon them all kinds of promises in return for votes at the coming elections.

Hearing the Other Side

"You have decided to stay on the farm?" "Yes," said Mr. Cobble. "I get discouraged during the week, but I cheer up considerably on Sundays."

"How is that?"

"I listen to people who come out here from town in their automobiles. After I hear them tell their troubles I forget that I have any of my own."

AGE OF NEW YORK SUBJECT OF DEBATE BY THE HOLLANDERS

Claim Three Hundredth Anniversary Should be Celebrated 1926, Not in 1924

NEW YORK. — Out of the archives of 300 years ago, Hollanders have brought to light a letter with which the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce strengthens a claim that the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the founding of New Amsterdam, now New York, should be in 1926, rather than in 1924, as tentative plans announced.

Here is the letter, with its quaint and brief description of the spot where now 6,000,000 persons live: where the assessed valuation is $6,000,000,000 or $250,000 an acre; where the exports are 100,000 times those of the year of its founding.

"Recep. 7 November, 1626."

High and Mighty Sirs:

Here arrived yesterday the ship The Arms of Amsterdam which sailed from New Nederland out of the Mauritius River (the Hudson) on September 23; they report that our people there are healthy and live peaceably. Their women also have borne children there; they have bought the island Manhattan from the wild men for the value of 60 guilders, is 11,000 morgens in extent. They sowed all their grain in the middle of May and harvested it in the middle of August. Thereof being samples of summer grain, such as wheat, rye, barley, oats, buckwheat, canary seed, small beans, and flax.

The cargo of the aforesaid ship is: 7246 beaver skins, 1782 other skins; 675 otter skins; 48 mink skins; 34 cat skins; 32 mink skins; 34 rat skins; many logs of oak and nut wood.

Herewith high and mighty sir, be ye commended to the Almighty's Grace.

In Amsterdam, Nov. 5, Anno. 1626.

"Your High Mightiness' Obedient, P. Schagen."

The 60 guilders mentioned, at the present rate of exchange, amount to the $24 price of Manhattan known to every schoolboy; the "Mauritius River" is the Hudson, from whose waters, by the way, a giant air cruiser recently took flight for Brazil—the glorified descendant 300 years apart, of the little ship that carried "otter skins, rat skins, and many logs of oak and nut wood."

L. Witter Van Hoogland, secretary of the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in New York, points out in recommending 1926 as the year for the tercentenary celebration, that the earlier settlers, contrary to the belief of historians of years ago, probably settled in Fort Orange, now the city of Albany, while Manhattan remained a trading post until a group landed there as settlers in 1626.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

BY BERTON BRALEY

I gave the beggar fifty cents. From out my hard-earned competency. And I felt very virtuous about it. For there's joy to charity. Which warms the heart, as youth agree.

It does you good, there's not a chance to doubt it.

That night I drove my fiver car. I hadn't run it very far. When all of once a splendid boat went by me.

The man within the driver's seat. Was decked in costly garb and neat. And with averted glance I saw him eye me.

Then all at once it came to me. Just who that wealthy bird might be. It was the mendicant whom I had aided.

Of course it made me pretty sore. To think I'd given from my store. To one whose riches had me wholly faded.

I brooded on it for awhile. And then I smiled a subtle smile. Because an inspiration struck me gaily.

So now four hours a day I sit. With hat outstretched to catch each bit. I'm cleaning up some fifty dollars daily.

JUDGE M'GOORTY, CHICAGO, SPEAKER AT C. OF C. LUNCH

"Good Citizenship" is Subject of Address at Meeting Wednesday Noon

DUTIES OF CITIZENS ARE OUTLINED IN SHORT TALK

Each Citizen Has Personal Responsibility, Says Speaker

"GOOD CITIZENSHIP" was the subject of the address made by Judge John P. McGoorty of Chicago at the after-luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday noon.

Judge McGoorty opened his talk with praise of the wonderful war record of the Wisconsin citizens and the troops from Wisconsin, especially commenting on the fact that the Badger state was one of the first to put a nearly completely equipped National Guard in the field.

In speaking of the relationship necessary between the members of the Chamber of Commerce of a city and the outlying districts, the speaker outlined briefly the work of the Illinois relations committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce, of which he is a member. He said that "La Crosse is following the same idea with very good results. This idea is not only good business, but it is necessary if people are to know each other. The Ford day which you are promoting here is especially fine. There would be no bigotry or strife in the world if people would only learn to know each other."

Judge McGoorty used the example of the crisis in the city of Chicago two years ago at the time of the coalition judicial election, when the citizenship committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce was interested in preserving the rights of citizens, to urge upon his hearers the personal responsibility of every American citizen at the polls.

"If there is waste and extravagance in politics," said the speaker, "it is directly due to the laxity of the electorate. They should see that their representatives are of the right sort. It is continually a difficulty to get the right sort of men to take office. This is another responsibility of citizenship—if necessary a citizen should be ready to make sacrifices to accept an office which he is capable of filling."

"Business and professional men should be practical in politics."

"It is also difficult to get persons of the right caliber to serve on juries. This is a service which, when required, should be fulfilled."

In closing the judge sketched the record of the United States in all her wars, pointing out the fact that in no single instance, did she make war for the purpose of conquest. In all she fought, asserted the speaker, for the right of a people to govern themselves as they see fit.

"There is a marked tendency now," he continued, "for the federal government to usurp some of the rights and privileges of the state governments. At the time that the constitutions of the federal and state governments were drawn up they were not intended to conflict with each other."

"The Smith-Towner bill attempts to take the control of education away from the state and put it in the hands of the federal government, which is a violation of state rights. The Volstead act, regardless of the merits of prohibition, I regard as an invasion of the right and privilege of the state to enact its own laws."

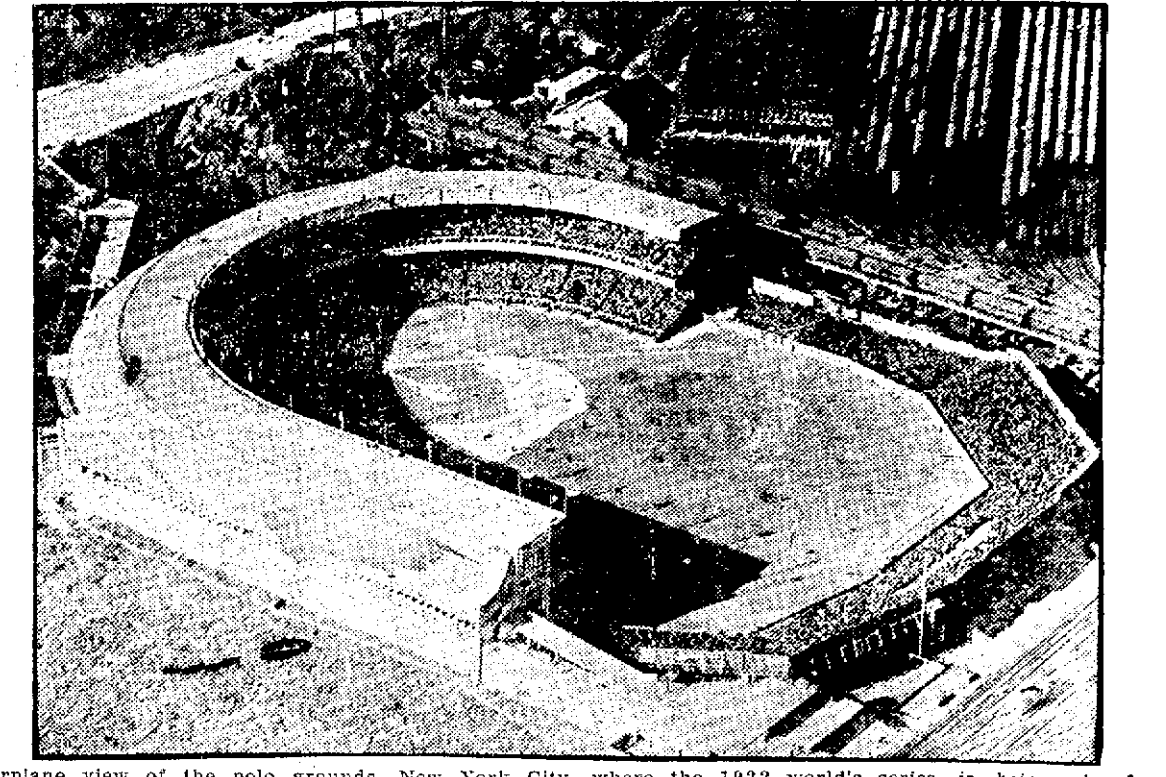

"It is the duty and responsibility of each individual citizen to work against such a usurpation of rights."

The attendance at the luncheon was as large as on the previous occasions, there being about 200 members present. The next luncheon will be held next Wednesday.

KINNEY SHOE CO. TO OPEN BRANCH STORE HERE ON SATURDAY

Newest Business Firm Here Establishes Home in Old Bijou Theatre Building

La Crosse's newest business firm will throw open its doors for business next Saturday morning when the G. R. Kinney company shoe store will be ready for business in the old Bijou theater building, Third street south of Main. E. J. Schofield will be the manager of the new store. He formerly was assistant manager at Scranton, Pa., and manager at Nashville, Tenn.

Announcement is made by Mr. Schofield that every 20th pair of shoes sold on the opening day, Saturday will be given away. This is a novel method of attracting business, and is used by the Kinney company when a new store is opened in a new town.

The G. R. Kinney Co., Inc., is a chain store organization selling popular priced shoes. It is incorporated for six million dollars and the La Crosse branch will be the 117th store of its kind in the United States. The majority of the company's stores are located in the east and throughout the middlewest. There is a Kinney store in Oshkosh, Appleton, Green Bay and Madison, two in Milwaukee and three in Chicago. The company is said to do the largest shoe retail business in the world and La Crosse is fortunate in securing a representative store from such a large concern.

The executive offices of the company are located in New York city. It owns and operates four large factories, three of which are in Pennsylvania and one in West Virginia. The largest shoe warehouse is located at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

The growth of the company since its inception 28 years ago has been nothing less than meteoric and expansion has been by leaps and bounds. G. R. Kinney organized the first shoe store in Waverly, New York, in 1894 with a $1,500 stock. For fifteen years the company specialized on the $1.98 shoe when with expansion and growth the policy was altered in favor of higher grade products.

TRUCE TO BE SIGNED TODAY AT MUDANIA

adjourned almost immediately to await arrival of the Greeks.

The Turkish demand that the Greek army evacuate Thrace within eight days is regarded as almost an impossibility. Constantinople dispatches mention the possibility of a blockade against Greece by the allies if the Athens government refuses to recall its forces but this is not borne out officially.

The Greek contention is that an immediate Turkish occupation of Thrace would result in excesses against the Christian population while the Turks profess to be equally concerned over the welfare of their co-religionists under the present regime.

The Times prints a lengthy letter from former Premier Venizelos of Greece protesting the return of Thrace to the Turks and suggesting that the province, as a last resort, be occupied by allied troops until execution of the peace treaty.

Asks U. S. Intercession

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece called on Ambassador Harrey Wednesday and asked the ambassador to send a message to Washington requesting the United States government to intercede with the allies and request them to occupy Thrace pending the final disposition of that territory.

Fur Seals in the Pacific

The fur seals which make their home on the Pribilof Islands, a barren group in the Bering sea, disappear from the islands at the beginning of the winter and throughout that season are scattered about the waters of the North Pacific. Some of them never leave the ice seas about Alaska, but others venture as far south as the coast of California. But wherever they may be, when spring comes instinct leads them back to the desolate islands.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Public Debate

RECALLING GORDON CADDY

To the Editor, Dear Sir:

In Monday's paper was an article about Gordon Caddy. From the description of his tombstone and funeral one would consider him a kindly old man. His monument is simple and even with these additions to it does not look beyond middle age, rather portly but vigorous and alert. He was beardless, though at that time most men wore beards. He had a pleasant word and smile and was respected and liked especially by men. He was courteous and exacted courtesy from his pupils. Really he was not only a master of dancing, but master of deportment as well. When quite young I attended one of his classes. The class was large and was held in a large hall. He stood on a platform playing his violin and calling off the figures of the dance. Suddenly he came down through the class and still playing and calling off and reached a couple that were not holding themselves with the dignity he desired. He would straighten them out, then back to the platform. If he had seen the hug-me-tight, cheek-by-jowl positions the couples take in public dances in these times he would have been horrified. Once he heard me curtly refuse the polite invitation of a boy I disliked and said he was amazed that a lady was not as polite as a boy and to save the boy's hurt I said, "I was shy and awkward. He told me if I was awkward, I would not be a partner in the Fling—I did not. We had square dances in many figures, some almost as dignified as the minuet. Or money-musk. I was an energetic, not graceful dancer and my favorites were a folk dance interspersed with "now there's a waltz" and "the waltz" and the Tempest in which the whole class of nearly a hundred at that time took part. If Mr. Caddy had not been a popular dancing master he could have become a famous violinist I believe. His brother was a distinguished singing master.

Yours truly, MRS. E. W. W.

P. S.—I want to thank you for your editorial "Cop-Sided Literature."

I agree with you heartily. I am remembering that many of these novels claim to depict western life. When I was east I read the life of our small towns. I told one editor, no, that in most things we were on a par with towns of that size and that we were broader and more enterprising or we would not be here.

STRIKERS APPEAL

To the Merchants and Union Workers

We the organized electrical workers of La Crosse have had men out on strike against the Wisconsin-Minnesota Light and Power company and have been refused arbitration, since the first day of May, 1922.

The power company has permission men tearing up the streets and installing the White Way system of posts and lights in front of the North La Crosse stores.

Cannot our friends, the merchants and union men of North La Crosse co-operate with us in our effort to build up our organization and keep the construction work of our city in the hands of local taxpayers?

Local Giants

The great whalebone whales, the bulk of which exceeds that of any other living animal, have developed their remarkable whalebone to sift small creatures upon which they feed from the sea water. An exact parallel is to be found in the largest sharks, the backing shark of northern seas and the whale shark of the Indian ocean, the teeth of which are small and of no account, but the highly developed gillrakers of which form a fine mesh net for the capture of small shrimp-like animals which abound in the sea. These great sharks reach a length of 40 feet or more and are enormous compared with anything but a whale.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

ALCOHOL GENERATED FROM MOLASSES RUN CARS OF ISLANDERS

Fuel Shortage and High Price of Gasoline Have No Terrors for this Community

HAMAKUPOKO, Island of Maui, T. H.—Coal strikes, warnings that the forests of the world may soon disappear if conservation is not practiced, predictions that the petroleum supply of the world may soon be exhausted and the high price of gasoline have no terrors for the inhabitants of this small community, for they cook, heat their houses and run their automobiles on alcohol which is generated by a newly discovered process from molasses.

The process was evolved by J. P. Foster, head chemist of the Maui Agricultural company and has been patented in all of the sugar producing countries of the world, he said. Heretofore, molasses always had been considered a waste product in sugar milling.

Originally, the alcohol produced by Foster was used only in the company trucks and automobiles but later, enough was manufactured to supply employees of the plantation, who live in Hamakupo. A simple apparatus composed of a few thin pipes and an open burner is required to burn the alcohol to supply heat for cooking, and these have been placed in all of the homes here.

Foster said that Maui can produce only enough alcohol in this fashion to supply the needs of the island's population and that no surplus would be available for use on the other islands of Hawaii.

SENATOR HUBER TO PUT FORWARD NEW JOB INSURANCE BILL

Will Offer Measure to Make Employers Liable for Unemployment of Workers

SIMILAR BILL KILLED BY SENATE AT LAST SESSION

Labor Unions of State Back of Huber Proposal

MADISON, Wis.—Workmen's unemployment insurance will be added to the list of legislative accomplishments in which Wisconsin has led the nation. If La Follette progressive members of the state legislature support passage of the unemployment insurance bill he will introduce, Senator Henry A. Huber said Wednesday.

Senator Huber last session sponsored a bill identical to the one he proposes to introduce in the coming session, which provides that employers are to be liable for unemployment of their workers to the maximum extent of $1 a day for 13 weeks. His measure was killed in the upper house by a small majority in 1921.

"Through operation of a law such as I propose, means would be provided to assure all who desire to work the right to employment without continual fear of the loss of a job," Senator Huber said. "It is not a radical proposal, but one that is intended to protect the working man in his right to an occupation."

Labor unions throughout the state are uniting in support of the Huber unemployment bill. The state federation of labor at its annual convention voted to actively support passage of the measure when it comes before the legislature at the 1923 session and urged the active backing of local unions.

Under provisions of the bill, any employee of an established industry, whose earning capacity is not more than $1500 annually, and who has worked for a company at least six months, laid off by the concern, would receive $1 a day for thirteen weeks. Employees on farms, or in purely seasonal occupations, would not come under provisions of the statute.

"The insurance would be maintained by an employers' mutual liability company," Senator Huber said. "Administration of the whole law would be carried through machinery of the industrial commission and would not cost tax payers a single cent."

Professor John R. Commons, well-known University of Wisconsin economist, drew the law which Senator Huber is sponsoring. He is expected to urge its passage before the legislature at the coming session.

OKLAHOMAN LOSES AUTO DAMAGE CASE HERE; TAKES APPEAL

E. F. Cadwell, an Oklahoma lawyer, sued by Lucien Giroux, 206 Rose street, for damages sustained when Cadwell's auto and Giroux' car collided at Monitor and Mill streets, has appealed to the circuit court from the judgment of Judge C. W. Hunt, in which Giroux was awarded $70.42 damages.

Cadwell's defense was that his wife was driving the car at the time of the collision and that he was not to blame nor was he responsible for the resulting damages. The Cadwells were touring in the north by motor.

She Said it
My small daughter had a habit of asking one to stay for the next meal, no matter who it was.

One day I was tired, and as one of my friends was coming over I told Jeannette that I would spank her if she asked this woman to stay for supper.

In due time my guest arrived and as soon as she was seated Jeannette said: "Can you stay for supper? Mamma said if I asked you she would spank me."—Exchange.

TWO STARS IN RIVOLI PICTURE

Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, prominent stars have the featured roles in William de Mille's production, "Bought and Paid For," which is shown to the finest advantage at the Rivoli today for the last time. The picture is based on George Broadhurst's famous play and in its picturization none of the drama of the original has been lost.

Miss Ayres and Mr. Holt, in the featured roles respectively of Virginia and Robert Stafford, her husband, were at their best, both roles being splendidly portrayed. The comedy parts of James Gilroy and Fanny Elaine, the husband and wife who suffer for material comforts when Virginia separates from Stafford, are played by Walter Hiers, famous portly comedian, and Leon Wyant. Others in the cast are George Kuwa, Bernice Frank and Ethel Wales.

The picture is one of exceptional dramatic strength and is well worth seeing. As a high class production it is unsurpassed.

CASINO TODAY

Two Princeton students, after a vacation in Europe, have returned to this country with a strange tale of how they encountered a company of motion picture people abroad.

"We were camping near the movie colony in a small town," one of the students is quoted as saying, "when we discovered not far away a small menagerie of trained tigers. The tiger of course, being the Princeton pet, we were seized with a desire to adopt one of these tame beasts.

"It was just before the tiger was turned loose in a scene of an Indian picture they were making—'above All Law.' The tiger with our pennant floating over him got well into the scene before the director noticed the discrepancy, shouted to the camera man to hold up and proceeded to air his wrath.

"What the deuce?" he shouted. "What's the trouble here?"

It was some time before he found out and had the scenes made over.

"Above All Law," a story of the love of an Indian princess, will be shown at the Casino Theater today. It is a powerful photoplay.

STRAND TODAY

I had the pleasure of a chat with Mary Carr, the ideal mother of the screen, and the heroine in the Win. Fox Production, "Silver Wings," which is coming to the Strand Theater tonight. It was at her home in New York I found her darling stockings—kiddie stockings—for the several (six, I think) youngsters of whom she is the real off-screen mamma. While on the silver sheet Mrs. Carr plays usually the role of a very old woman, she is really a middle-aged home-body sort of person, whose chief hobby is the bringing up of a tribe of young, lusty and mischievous Carrs.

RIVIERA WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

Tom Douglas and Marjorie Seaman, featured players in the Hodgkinson released production, "Free Air," which comes to the Riviera theater today for an engagement of 2 days, are now known to their friends as "Running Deer" and "Laughing Water."

The new names were bestowed on Mr. Douglas and Miss Seaman by the Crow Indians of Glacier Park, where the final scenes for "Free Air" were taken.

Mr. Griffith and the members of the company were at Glacier Park for more than three weeks, shooting locations for "Free Air." During that time they made friends with a number of the Indians, and one old chief became so friendly that he promised to give a party in honor of the actors when their work was completed.

MAE MURRAY DESIGNS "BROADWAY ROSE" GOWNS

Amongst much talked of features of Mae Murray's recent photoplays, "Pearl of the East" and "Fascination," was the dazzling array of gowns that the blonde star wore in those productions. In her latest picture, "Broadway Rose," presented by Robert Z. Leonard at the Riviera Theater Monday, she is said to wear costumes that will make even the most fortunate woman gasp with envy. And the secret has leaked out that practically all of these gowns were made from Miss Murray's own designs.

"I find that all the soft music in the world is of no help to me in catching the necessary mood in acting for the camera unless I have the feeling that the costume I am wearing is the one exactly suited to that mood in color, design and appropriateness," says Miss Murray.

ANITA STEWART—MAJESTIC
A thrilling rescue from a raging mountain torrent, a battle four hundred feet underground, a midnight race through the hills, the most beautiful scenery in America and the blowing up of a whole mountainside are a few of the attractions that compete with romance for the limelight in "A Question of Honor," closing today at the Majestic.

Starring Anita Stewart, the picture is one of those rare combinations of drama and adventure that keeps one's interest on edge all the time. The story by Ruth Cross, ran as a serial in the People's Home Journal, where it was followed by millions of readers as one of the most fascinating outdoor tales ever written.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Dispute Over Dog Shatters A Friendship

TROY Kaps — Unable to settle emphatically the ownership of a German police dog which they jointly had captured on a battlefield in France during the friendship of two world war buddies has become shattered and one of them was placed under arrest on charges preferred by the other, theft of a dog. — "German shepherd valued at $200" according to the complaint.

It was in the summer of 1914 while two soldiers, Max Adamson and W. L. Sparks, were on the French front, that they found the dog, standing guard over the dead body of his master, a German officer. With considerable difficulty the two Americans captured the dog. Nearly a year later Sparks brought the dog home. He claimed ownership. Later Adamson was mustered out.

According to Sparks, the complainant, Adamson since then has tried to get possession of the dog, and finally did so and took "Bob," the dog's American name, in an automobile to Oklahoma. Sparks traced them and had Adamson arrested in Clinton, Okla., and Sheriff W. L. Brivett obtained a requisition to bring Adamson back here for trial.

GEORGIA'S NEW WOMAN SENATOR MORE INTERESTED IN ENFORCING PRESENT LAWS THAN IN ENACTING NEW LAWS

CARTERSVILLE, Ga.—By The Associated Press.—"A woman who has lived to be eighty-seven and still retains her optimism over the outlook for human control in America cannot help but realize that it is not so much a question of laws to govern men and women, as it is a question of enforcement."

This was the statement of Mrs. W. H. Felton, who has become the first woman United States senator, as she declared at her home here today that she is succeeding the late Senator Thomas E. Watson without exciting herself over such questions as the tariff, the bonus and the "fast disappearing" flapper type of girl.

"Good laws and good law-makers," she continued, "we already have. I shall not strive to win glory in statesmanship. If only I can aid in making men and women live cleaner, sweeter and more wholesome lives, I shall be well satisfied."

Mrs. Felton reminds one of the old-fashioned mother portrayed on the American stage of today. Her hair is as white as snow and her face wrinkled, but despite her age she is very active. She possesses a magnetic personality. Although retiring in her manner, the "grand old woman of Georgia" as she is known throughout the south, talks as fluently as she writes and does not hesitate to express her views on important issues of the day.

"I am not interested in the fast disappearing flapper type of girl," she smiled as she removed her gold-rimmed glasses, "but I am interested in the modern young woman. The light of a new day is growing brighter for women in America and with their opportunities will decide most of the generally advanced type of citizens."

"A strong nation is dependent on its women and the manner in which they opportunities will decide most of the great issues of the future."

"Woman's entry into politics is the most romantic development in this country's history. It comes about because our great problems today are social and economic, and this is work in which women are needed."

"I see a better citizenry coming to America only through efforts to improve our living standards. The working man must have a living wage. He must not be forced too much in competition with unskilled labor from abroad. There must be every encouragement."

Ford and George Gibbs enjoyed a picnic dinner at the Arthur Gibbs home Sunday.

Miss Nettie Huttenhew of La Crosse was a week-end guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Huttenhew.

Mr. and Mrs. Elam Beardsley and Mrs. Aletta Bruce were dinner guests of Miss Retta Utter Sunday.

Willie Growt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Growt, fell from a tree and broke his arm Friday.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching
Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

KENO AND GREEN ADDED TO CAST OF "UNIT SHOW"

Noted Dancer Recovers and Rejoins the Company at St. Paul

When "The Whirl of New York" comes to the La Crosse theater on Wednesday, October 11, it will be greatly strengthened by the inclusion of Joe Keno and Rosie Green, two of the original members of the Winter Garden company, who were unable to start out with the Schubert Vaudeville unit as Miss Green had not received from a breakdown which she experienced during the summer. As her work as a dancer is of a very strenuous order, it was thought inadvisable for her to join the company until she had completely recovered. She is now

"feeling fine, thank you," and she and her partner will join the company in St. Paul this week.

Keno and Green are the original "Blinky Bill" and Mamie Clancy of "The Whirl," the cast names having descended from the original "Belle of New York" on which "The Whirl of New York" is based. In addition to playing their roles in the condensation of the musical comedy extravaganza, they will offer their vaudeville act, "The Saturday Evening Postman."

Self-Starting Engine
Automatic starting of an engine surprised the driver and fireman of a train at Beaurails, in France. The two men in charge, were standing by their detached steam engine, when it suddenly started off, leaving them at the station. The engine, being short of steam, ran only six miles, to Herich Junction, where it pulled up and awaited the arrival of its crew.—Galesville Republican.

WIFE IN HOSPITAL, OLD FILLMORE FARMER ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Two weeks after his wife had been committed to the state hospital for the insane at Rochester, John Steen, aged 71, farmer residing about three miles north of Canton in Fillmore county, killed himself by hanging late Tuesday.

His body was found dangling from a rafter in a neighbor's barn. Dr. Grinnell of Preston, Fillmore county coroner, pronounced it suicide. He had been dead three to four hours when found, Dr. Grinnell said.

Sickness and worry over his wife's condition were given by Dr. Grinnell as possible causes. Mrs. Steen was committed to the asylum by Probate Judge D. K. Michener of Preston after an examination had revealed her insanity.

WHEN BUSINESS IS DULL

Photographers
Usually Have the Biggest Xmas Rush
—the Reason?

BECAUSE a dozen Photographs make twelve very acceptable Xmas gifts.

BECAUSE a dozen Photographs can be had for about half the cost of twelve miscellaneous gifts.

BECAUSE you save the worry attendant to "What shall I give for Xmas?" as well as the fatigue of the season's shopping.

BECAUSE we expect this rush in December, we hope to relieve the strain, somewhat, by urging you to sit in October.

BECAUSE of this, we are offering an enlargement gratis with every order amounting to $10 or over—if this ad. is presented at our studio before Nov. 1st.

Your friends can buy anything you can give them—"Except Your Photograph."

The EIGHT FAMOUS VICTOR ARTISTS

THE EIGHT FAMOUS VICTOR ARTISTS—who are being brought by our Victrola Department to the La Crosse Theatre on Thursday evening, October 5th, is a further extension of our "Service Plan."

These artists are by far the most popular of the record artists today. They reach perhaps a larger multitude than any other artists catering to a popular appeal.

It is because of the wide sale of Victor Records by these artists and their popularity with our clientele that we are bringing them to this city, to afford the public an opportunity to see and hear in person these artists who through the Victrola are entertaining the world. It affords the public an opportunity to compare the artists—work, voice and personality with the records they have made.

This is not a "tone-recital," not a demonstration of Victrolas or Victor Records. It is distinctly a concert and entertainment, a program of mirth, music and melody, both vocal and instrumental, embracing the late song hits and the popular songs of the day. Concerted numbers by the "Peerless Quartette" and the "Sterling Trio." The public's hearty reception of the plan demonstrates their approval. We can assure you that you will find this program one of the most interesting you have ever heard and you will long remember these artists.

Seats are on sale until Six P. M. Thursday—Victrola Dept., First Floor. After 6:30 P. M. seats can be secured at the Theatre box office.
